

P R O C E E D I N G S

(Lobby conference as follows:)

MR. McALEAR: Okay, jurors. Once again, my name is Jim McAlear, juror administrator. I'm sure you know my voice by now. And we've met a few times.

In a short moment I'm going to be bringing up a map for you, some instructions. For logistical reasons, to make everything go as smooth as possible, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. So that's where we're going to have all the jurors meet, in [REDACTED], and then we're going to drive you over here to the courthouse, and that way we'll come in as a group. And again, it's just going to make it so we can get through security that much quicker, and it's just going to be easier for everyone.

A JUROR: Where is that?

MR. McALEAR: [REDACTED].

A JUROR: Where is that exactly?

MR. McALEAR: Okay. Yeah, so we're going to give you a map shortly. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] There's -- I'm not sure how everybody got in. There's a parking lot right over there. There's actually quite a few. We have a map coming that shows

1 you where the parking lots are. You can park at any one of 2 those parking lots over there. Obviously, you'll get
3 reimbursed much quicker than we reimbursed you this particular
4 time because we haven't reimbursed you yet. The check will be 5 coming for that.

6 These are the maps? Okay. Thank you.

7 So if you can pass this map around, and you'll see
8 right in the middle there's a red asterisk a little north of 9 the middle. And pass this around. And this is exactly what 10 the building looks like, and it's with another little set of 11 directions.

12 Those of you driving in, you would -- [REDACTED]

13 [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED]
19 [REDACTED]
20 [REDACTED] If not,
21 come downstairs before you leave here today and I'll make sure
22 you have exact instructions of how to get there.

Again, you'll be meeting over there. We'll be providing lunch for you on a daily basis. You can bring your lunch if you wish. We're going to talk to the marshal about that. But we'll be providing breakfast too.

THE CLERK: We're going to be having breakfast and lunch for you every day. And usually the breakfast will be here at eight-ish, eight-fifteen, okay? They'll spread it out here. So if you want to indulge in it, feel free, or eat at home. It's up to you. But the food will be here.

A JUROR: How do we get here [REDACTED]?

MR. McALEAR: Okay. From [REDACTED] -- you have the map in front of you. From [REDACTED] -- it's a lot more -- it looks a lot worse than it is. So if I can just grab this for one second.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

1 [REDACTED]
2 [REDACTED]
3 [REDACTED]
4 [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED]
6 [REDACTED]
7 [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED]
10 [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED],
13 you'll see, is right above that asterisk. There's a T right on 14 the top of the map. That's the [REDACTED]. Yup.
15 And then that's a one-and-a-half block walk. That's probably 16 about a four and a half minute walk to [REDACTED].
17 You're going to enter right in through the front door.
18 And, again, the building looks just like that, exactly like
19 that, and then --
20 A JUROR: Except for big snowbanks.
21 MR. McALEAR: Except for big snowbanks.
22 [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]
23 [REDACTED] is the U.S. Marshal that is coordinating the 24 transportation over here. Once again, I want to stress that 25 that is -- it's just going to get you in here situated and

1 ready to go much quicker than it would if everybody just came
2 in on their own. So that's where we want everybody to meet for 3 convenience purposes.

4 A JUROR: At what time?

5 MR. McALEAR: 7:45. 7:45.

6 A JUROR: Just meet in the lobby, did you say?

7 MR. McALEAR: Yes. [REDACTED] -- he should be up here very 8 shortly. He's going to give you some brief instructions on how 9 he's going to handle that.

10 A JUROR: Is this every day that we'll meet there?
11 Every day, Monday through Friday?

12 MR. McALEAR: Yes, every day. Monday through 13 Thursday.

14 THE CLERK: Remember, Friday you're going to have off.

15 A JUROR: And we'll get dropped back off there?

16 MR. McALEAR: You'll get dropped back off there, yes.

17 A JUROR: What about work on Friday? If you work
18 Friday normally, do you have to go to work on Friday?

19 THE CLERK: That's up to your employer. I mean,
20 that's why we kind of gauge it that way. So if people have to 21 get back and do some stuff in the office, so Friday --

22 MR. McALEAR: So you should let your employer know
23 you'll be here Monday through Thursday, and you'll have Fridays
24 off every week.

25 THE CLERK: Right.

1 A JUROR: What time does court end?

2 THE CLERK: The judge is going to be sitting nine to
3 four. And he will order an early -- take a break late morning,
4 like a midmorning break, usually about 15 minutes. I'm
5 guessing -- actually, I'm not sure if he'll take an afternoon
6 break because your lunch will either be a half-hour or an hour,
7 okay? So depending on when we break. But you'll definitely, I
8 believe, get a midmorning break. And I'll just double-check
9 with the judge to make sure we're keeping the same procedure we 10 usually do on that.

11 A JUROR: You're saying there's 12 of us and six
12 alternates. Are we all going to be in there?

13 MR. McALEAR: All 18 are jurors.

14 THE CLERK: Yeah, you guys are all jurors. So
15 everybody has to be there.

16 A JUROR: So there's all 18 of us?

17 A JUROR: Will we know who the alternates are or are 18 we just --

19 THE CLERK: We have a jury of 18, and you'll all be in 20 there listening to the evidence. That's the best I can tell
21 you.

22 A JUROR: They usually pick alternates after the 23 trial.

24 A JUROR: What did you say?

25 A JUROR: I said they usually pick alternates after

1 the trial, and the foreman.

2 MR. McALEAR: So as far as security -- so you're going
3 to be going into [REDACTED]. There is a set
4 of security over there. The only thing I'd request is if you
5 normally wear a lot of bracelets or a lot of metal, like a
6 large watch or something, to expedite things, the less you have
7 on, kind of, like, you know, just to make it easier for you,
8 but obviously make yourself comfortable.

9 Cell phones, bring them with you. We will -- the 10 jurors can take your cell phones into the court here. We'll 11 have a box outside the room. You still can't have it in here,
12 but at least you'll have it with you and, you know --

13 THE CLERK: We will -- during the lunch hour, if you
14 need to call the office, you want to check in, that's fine.
15 That's really got to be restricted, okay? It's not just 16 open-ended where you can talk on for an hour or whatever, you
17 know, talk to -- social. It's strictly more for your job, if 18 you need to check in.

19 I'm going to count on you because you're going to be 20 dealing with me every day once Mr. McAlear is done. Then I'm 21 going to be your contact person. I'm going to ask you right
22 now -- we're going to put the trust that you will not abuse
23 that cell phone privilege, okay? Because that's not the 24 ordinary course in trials, okay? Usually you guys have to 25 check the phones downstairs, okay? So I'm just bringing that

1 up now, all right?

2 A JUROR: Can we bring, like, our purses?

3 THE CLERK: Purses, what I would do -- ordinarily we 4 would have jurors bring in any valuables, like their purses and 5 stuff, but because the security is going to be such, I think
6 your purses will probably be okay here. But it's optional. I
7 mean, if you feel -- jackets, coats, newspapers, you can leave
8 those here, books and -- but the valuables we'll --

9 A JUROR: So the purse can't come in the court with 10 us?

11 THE CLERK: I mean, I tell the jurors they should 12 bring their valuables because usually this door is a master key 13 so you can get into it, but because of the type of case and 14 security that there is, it's probably okay to leave it here. I
15 just don't want to make that 100 percent commitment. So I'll 16 leave that up to you.

17 A JUROR: So you don't want us looking for you?

18 THE CLERK: Exactly. Exactly. You got it.

19 MR. McALEAR: So I just passed out a very brief
20 information sheet. It just states that I passed out a map,
21 that the address of [REDACTED]

22 [REDACTED] You need to arrive in that building at 7:45 a.m.
23 Please give yourself some extra time for commuting. The 24 nearest public transportation is [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED].

1 I've given you my cell phone number, so please call
2 that if you're running late. You know, try not to abuse that
3 number, please. You don't have to send me anything other than 4 "I'm running late" in the morning. The other number there is
5 for [REDACTED].

6 THE CLERK: He's waiting for you to be done, and as 7 soon as you're done, he'll come in.

8 MR. McALEAR: And I gave that number for [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED] in case you can't get ahold of me, you can always call
10 [REDACTED], but always call me first and let me know what your 11 situation is. But once you get used to the commute, it should 12 be kind of second nature to you.

13 THE CLERK: And then Mr. McAlear will then let me know
14 what the status is of anybody who's late or anything, and I'll 15 just let the judge know and the parties, and then we'll go from 16 there.

17 MR. McALEAR: So I'm going to yield to Mr. [REDACTED].

18 A JUROR: Before you go, we need two more of those.

19 MR. McALEAR: Two more of those sheets?

20 A JUROR: What happens if you're sick?

21 MR. McALEAR: Nobody gets sick at the United States
22 District Court. You know -- obviously, you know, we're going
23 to request everybody get here as quickly and as safely as you
24 possibly can.

25 THE CLERK: If there is something like that, let us

1 know and we'll go from there. But I can't say one way or 2 another how we proceed on that.

3 MR. McALEAR: This here is [REDACTED].
4 And [REDACTED] is going to be an important part of your lives. So
5 I'm going to let [REDACTED] take over right now.

6 A JUROR: Where do we go once we go to the building?

7 MR. McALEAR: So somebody just asked where do they go
8 once they get into the building.

9 ([REDACTED], Deputy U.S. Marshal, enters the jury
10 room.)

11 MR. [REDACTED]: Okay. So you're going to go right in 12 the front entrance. You can't miss it. It's [REDACTED]
13 There's magnetometers, so you're going to have to go through 14 security screening there. It's pretty quick. Just try to 15 minimize that, you know, what you're bringing in. Obviously,
16 no weapons or anything like that. Be careful, I guess -- I'm 17 not sure as far as liquids or stuff. Our security screening is 18 a little greater.

19 But, yeah, you'll go through those [REDACTED] and 20 I'll stand there to receive you, you know. So take a good look 21 at me, but I'll be there. The security there is aware that,
22 you know, we just basically -- I wouldn't display your juror's
23 badge or ID or anything like that -- keep that in your 24 pockets -- that you'll be receiving if you didn't receive it
25 already. Hold on to that. And as far as they know, we're just

1 transporting -- helping transport some employees.

2 So if you just come in, I'll be there to receive you,
3 escort you guys to where you need to go, and then we'll just 4 travel. We have a couple of vans just to make it easier for 5 you, for your transportation to the courthouse.

6 I don't know how much Jim explained but just, you
7 know, if you know you're going to be late or -- you know,
8 you're running late or if it's something immediate as far as 9 related -- you know, something related to your security or an 10 issue you're having, if it's immediate, please relay it to me.
11 If it's something that can wait, it's something that should 12 go -- most communications should be with Paul or Jim.

13 Do you stay in contact with them?

14 MR. McALEAR: Yeah, I gave them my number. I told 15 them my number's first contact but --

16 THE CLERK: I'll give them my number too when I hand
17 these out just so they have all of us.

18 MR. [REDACTED]: If it's something right away, though,
19 during your commute, you run into some issue, then, you know, I
20 think they provided you with my contact information.

21 Newspapers, stuff like that, please don't bring with you.

22 They're not allowed in the van, we don't keep them in the van.

23 My staff, the people that are going to be working with 24 me, you know, they'll definitely communicate with you, "Oh,
25 good morning," stuff like that. But they won't be -- you know,

1 don't think that they're rude if they don't engage in small
2 talk. They're instructed not to. They're instructed through a
3 court order not to and by our policy not to. So they're not
4 being rude; they're just following instructions.

5 You know, obviously if you have an issue related to,
6 like, an official capacity, then they'll respond to you
7 appropriately.

8 Any questions?

9 A JUROR: I have just a question. If I had an
10 emergency at home with my kids and they needed to get in touch
11 with me --

12 MR. [REDACTED]: We're going to facilitate that.

13 A JUROR: -- would it be this number they have?

14 MR. McALEAR: We gave you a number when you first came 15 in, so if you still have that information sheet. That 16 [REDACTED] number, that's the number that you give to any 17 family member that needs to get in touch with you in case of a
18 personal emergency.

19 A JUROR: Can you repeat that?

20 MR. McALEAR: Yes. It's [REDACTED]. And there's 21 somebody here to answer that as early as 7:30 in the morning
22 until the last juror leaves in the evening.

23 A JUROR: What if we were, like, really late, like
24 this morning the train was real late?

25 MR. [REDACTED]: That's something that --

1 A JUROR: Would we just go over to the courthouse --

2 THE CLERK: Call the MBTA and protest.

3 MR. [REDACTED]: No, we'd make arrangements for that.
4 So, I mean, just -- no, you'd call me. If you know ahead of 5 time, you know, that early in the morning, "Hey, the train" --
6 "They told me the train's going to be an hour late," you could
7 give me a call or even a text and say, you know, "I'm Juror No.
8 So and so and I'm going to be -- I'm expecting to be an hour
9 late." We'll communicate with you.

10 No, you'll go to the same place and we'll arrange to 11 have you transported by yourself, if need be.

12 A JUROR: I was wondering if you run late or 13 something, do you come directly here?

14 MR. McALEAR: No, you should always call me first, or 15 [REDACTED], regarding if that's going to be the case.

16 A JUROR: 7:45. Can't we come like at 8:30?

17 A JUROR: I know. I was thinking the same thing.

18 THE CLERK: When it becomes springtime and the birds
19 are singing and warm, you'll love to get here.

20 A JUROR: It's hard to get here. I mean, even the 21 trains don't run on that schedule.

22 A JUROR: How about emergencies?

23 MR. McALEAR: Snow emergencies is the same as was 24 posted on the original paperwork. If Boston Public Schools are 25 delayed or cancelled, then jury service would be cancelled for

1 that day, so--

2 A JUROR: Even if the school is delayed, we'd be
3 cancelled?

4 MR. McALEAR: That's correct. So if it's delayed one
5 hour. Boston Public Schools. It's very important -- that does
6 not mean Boston College High School, it doesn't mean Sandwich
7 High School or Newburyport. It's Boston Public Schools. So if
8 Boston Public is delayed one hour, jury service is cancelled.
9 That's for weather-related reasons. If there's some sort of 10 bus driver strike and they say -- that's not the same as 11 cancelled. We had that happen once, that's why I just want to 12 get that out there. So it's for weather-related conditions.

13 We'll also probably be in contact with you if we know
14 that there's a storm coming up. I take your numbers home with 15 me every night. And if that's the case, I'll call you in 16 addition to letting you know Boston Public Schools is delayed,
17 so...

18 We're going to be handing you a badge right now.
19 Again, the badge has a clip on it. You're going to be getting
20 newer badges starting tomorrow, but these badges are what [REDACTED]
21 was talking about. They have a clip on it. You want
22 to -- some people want to -- it's for internal use as well as 23 letting [REDACTED] know that you are a juror. There's no reason to 24 have that clipped on when you leave this building. It's for 25 our purposes only. It's for all court staff to know who you

1 are. Because when you're in the back of the house here, it's a
2 restricted area. So when we see people wandering around --
3 faces have become familiar over the years, so if we look and 4 see somebody, "Oh, what's that person doing here? Oh, there's 5 a juror badge. They might be lost." And that way we know
6 they're a juror.

7 So keep that exposed while you're in the back, but as
8 soon as you leave here, take it off, put it in your pocket.
9 But you do want to bring that with you every single day.

10 THE CLERK: And just one other question. In terms of 11 valuables, we've had a couple of questions in terms of their 12 purses, whether they could leave them here, should they bring 13 them into the courtroom?

14 MR. [REDACTED]: I'd assume the usual -- I would say the 15 typical protocol. Whatever your usual practice would be.

16 THE CLERK: Our usual practice?

17 MR. [REDACTED]: Yes, your usual practice would be fine.
18 There will always be somebody around.

19 THE CLERK: That's why I'm saying you can probably 20 leave your purse here.

21 MR. [REDACTED]: Is that usually what's done, Paul?

22 THE CLERK: They usually bring their valuables out to 23 the courtroom because this door can be accessed pretty much by 24 anybody. But I figured since with the security and with what's 25 going on, it might be a different beast or just --

1 MR. [REDACTED]: No, I would just bring it. I would
2 just do business as usual.

3 THE CLERK: Then just bring it out to the courtroom.
4 Take it with you.

5 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Hey, folks, did anybody here
6 bring in anything other than their cell phones today, any other
7 electronics, computers, iPads, anything like that that's in the 8 drawer downstairs?

9 How many here have a cell phone here today? Can you
10 all hand me your tags, and I'm going to go get your cell phones
11 and bring them up here to you.

12 THE CLERK: And while you're doing that, I'm going to 13 hand out these badges.

14 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: So I have all tags? No other
15 computers, laptops, iPads, none of that other stuff, right?
16 Okay. Cameras? Thank you, folks.

17 THE CLERK: We're almost done, at least with what we
18 have to do. What I'm going to do now is I'm going to hand
19 these badges out. As Mr. McAlear was explaining, you can put 20 them on a pocket, belt buckle, someplace where they're 21 displayed. Please make sure you bring these in with you, okay?

22 A JUROR: What do you do as far as restricted diet?
23 How do you handle that?

24 MR. McALEAR: We just have one?

25 MR. [REDACTED]: She just asked.

1 MR. McALEAR: Ma'am, as far as restricted diet,
2 what --

3 A JUROR: Glutin. I can bring my own. I'll worry
4 about my breakfast, but lunch -- and I know they have 5 gluten-free bread downstairs.

6 MR. McALEAR: They do? Okay. So I will inform them
7 of that. And we can handle the lunch. I don't know if we 8 could handle the breakfast.

9 A JUROR: I'll deal with that.

10 MR. McALEAR: But you can bring in food as well. We 11 do have a refrigerator here. We do have another -- you know,
12 the refrigerator, obviously, is small. We do have other
13 refrigerators that we can access.

14 A JUROR: Can we have water with us in the courtroom
15 or not?

16 THE CLERK: If you need it, I'm sure we can -- you
17 know, I'll talk to the judge just to make sure that's okay. I
18 think that will be okay but I don't want to say definitively
19 until I talk to him, okay? But I'll see him after we're done
20 here.

21 A JUROR: Is there note-taking?

22 THE CLERK: I believe there is going to be
23 note-taking. There again -- because I had to get the steno
24 pads. So I believe the judge is intending for you guys to take 25 notes. But there again, what's going to happen tomorrow is the

1 judge is going to set down all the parameters for you, okay?
2 He's going to tell you the procedural -- in terms of any
3 note-taking -- he'll give just basically what's going to be 4 going on, okay? So any of those questions, okay, hold off and 5 see if he talks about them tomorrow. If not, then you can
6 mention it to me and then I'll ask the judge. But he's usually 7 good that way.

8 MR. McALEAR: The judge is going to be coming in.

9 THE CLERK: And the judge is going to be coming in 10 too. Shows you how much I communicate with him.

11 The other thing is I'm going to give you my name and 12 phone number. You have everybody else's, so if you have your 13 sheet of paper, first name is Paul, and the last name is 14 Lyness, L-Y-N-E-S-S. And my direct line is [REDACTED].
15 That is my direct line. I know you have Mr. McAlear's and 16 [REDACTED] number, but you should have mine too as a third point
17 of contact in case -- whatever, just to have it. Again, I am
18 the judge's courtroom deputy, so throughout this whole trial
19 I'm going to be your point person, okay?

20 A JUROR: And you're the judge's --

21 THE CLERK: Courtroom deputy, courtroom clerk,
22 whatever you want to call me, that's fine. But courtroom
23 deputy.

24 The judge is going to be coming in. He wants to speak
25 to you for a few minutes too, okay?

1           A JUROR: I have a question.

2           (The Court enters the jury room.)

3           THE COURT: Jurors -- you're real jurors now. I just 4 wanted to come in and just personally thank you for your
5 anticipated service in the case. This is a very important
6 responsibility, as I'm sure you all understand. You and I are 7 in this together. We're on the same side here. Our side is 8 justice. Our job is to be as fair and impartial as we possibly 9 can, and I know you all can do it because I have seen jurors
10 over the years do exactly this. It's going to be a serious
11 responsibility. It's one you can handle. We're very confident
12 of that. And I just wanted to express that to you.

13           You've been given some of the logistics. I hope
14 everything works smoothly. We're trying to make this as smooth
15 a process for you as possible, and that's why we've made the 16 transportation arrangements to speed your entry into the 17 building so you don't have to go through crowds and you don't 18 have to worry about parking down here and things like that.
19 And so we'll have a plan for you to do that. We'll provide you
20 lunch so you don't have to go out of the building and so on,
21 all of which is to try to make you comfortable to the extent we 22 can under the restrictions we're going to have.

23           I've been hounding you constantly about avoiding any 24 discussion of the case. It's extremely important that you are 25 just devoted to that idea from here on out, particularly with

1     respect to family and friends who may innocently make a remark
2     or something. You're just going to have to be firm with them
3     and say, "Please, don't put me on the spot. I've got to follow
4     what the judge has told me. Don't put me in a situation where 5     I'm doing something I shouldn't be doing."

6             Facebook, Twitter, you can rest assured that the world
7     being what it is, there will be people watching your accounts,
8     okay? So anything that appears there, we're going to hear
9     about. That's the way it is, unfortunately, in the world
10    today. So please be very circumspect about that. If people
11    approach you, say, "I can't do it. Just please don't write to 12    me about those things," okay?

13            Can I count on you?

14            THE JURORS: Yes, sir. Absolutely.

15            THE COURT: Okay. Other than that, this will be a
16    serious matter. It will take some time. It will be
17    interesting, it will be challenging, but I know you all can do
18    it. And that's really all I have to say. Tomorrow when you
19    get here we'll formally bring you into the courtroom and 20    administer the oath. That actually marks the formal beginning 21    of the trial, when the jury takes the oath of office. And 22    we'll begin. We expect to go right into opening statements and 23    have witnesses begin first thing.

24            For our schedule, you know we're Monday through 25    Thursday. So we'll sit tomorrow, Wednesday, and Thursday. We

1 will not sit on Friday this week. We'll resume the normal
2 Monday through Thursday next week, all right?

3 So that's really all I have to say except, finally,
4 the Supreme Court of the United States has a very interesting
5 tradition. Before they go out on the bench to hear argument
6 and before they conference a case, they all shake hands with 7 each other, and I thought we'd do that because we're now
8 teammates. I'm going to go around and you can do it.

9 (The judge shakes hands with the jurors.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. You're going to be going along. I
11 think the marshal may have told you that they're going to 12 shepherd you out so, again, you don't have to go through the 13 mass of people in the front and you can be on your way. And 14 we'll see you tomorrow.

15 A JUROR: We have to wait for our cell phones.

16 THE COURT: That's right. You're getting your cell
17 phones.

18 We'll see you bright and early and start our project.

19 A JUROR: Do you know if you're going to sequester us?

20 THE COURT: You're not going to be sequestered. No,
21 no, no, you'll go home every night at four o'clock or 22 thereabouts, okay?

23 THE JURORS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Have a good evening. We'll see you
25 tomorrow morning.
